SEMINAR SCHEDULE

Schedule is subject to change.*

REGISTRATION 8:00-8:30 A.M.

WELCOME 8:30-9:00 A.M.

KEYNOTE 9:00-10:00 A.M.

► Injured Workers Are People Too

Too often in the past, we've focused on the claims process, cost containment or efficiency and forgotten that the "claimant" is also a human being and things beyond the actual injury can reduce their motivation, elongate RTW, and increase the total cost of the claim. This session discusses the whole person approach to recovery from an injury or occupational disease, in strategic and tactical terms.

Mark Pew, Provost & Founding Partner; WorkCompCollege.com

BREAK 10:00-10:15 A.M.

BREAK OUT SESSIONS 10:15-11:15 A.M.

► Reverse Total Shoulder

In this presentation, we will discuss reverse total shoulder, the relevant anatomy, biomechanics, and indications for surgery. Specifically, we will discuss when a reverse total shoulder would be considered work-related versus related to a pre-existing condition and how to differentiate. We will also discuss the typical recovery period, restrictions, and impairment.

Dr. Jared S. Johnson, MD, ABOS, AAOS, The Shoulder Clinic of Idaho

► Recent Discipline Cases

Joe Pirtle will discuss recent lawyer discipline cases imposing public sanctions. The presentation will address the facts and violations of the Idaho Rule of Professional Conduct at issue in each case.

Joseph N. Pirtle, Bar Counsel; Idaho State Bar

► The Aging Workforce: Medical Realities and Claims Strategies for a Changing Demographic

As the American workforce ages, workers' compensation professionals must adapt to new medical and return-to-work challenges. This session explores how aging affects injury recovery, disability duration, and claim outcomes, with a focus on practical strategies for case management. Attendees will gain insights into comorbidities, polypharmacy, ergonomic adaptations, and ADA considerations. Join us to learn how proactive, age-informed approaches can improve outcomes for injured workers and reduce claim complexity.

Dr. Marcos A Iglesias, Chief Medical Director; AF Group

LUNCH 11:15 A.M.-12:30 P.M.
INCLUDED AS PART OF REGISTRATION

BREAK OUT SESSIONS 12:30-1:30 P.M.

► Industrial Commission Update: “Milestones that Matter”

Commissioner Sharp will present on challenges and opportunities affecting the Idaho workers’ compensation system.

Claire Sharp, Commission Chair; Industrial Commission

► Workers’ Compensation and the Rotator Cuff. A Story Filled with Intrigue, Mystery, and Heartbreak

In this presentation, we will discuss common shoulder injuries related to the rotator cuff encountered in the workers’ compensation system. We will discuss the relevant anatomy, proper workup, and spend time reviewing the pearls and pitfalls related to the management of acute shoulder injuries. We will also spend some time on differentiating new injuries vs pre-existing age-related change, determining aggravation vs exacerbation, and addressing acceleration of a chronic underlying disease. Finally, we will review new treatment modalities, including the expanding use of biologics in the management of acute shoulder injuries.

Michael T. Daines, MD; West Idaho Orthopedics and Sports Medicine

► A Data-Driven Dive into Idaho’s WC Landscape and the Western Region

Join NCCI as they present the key cost drivers shaping Idaho’s workers’ compensation system, reveal timely economic insights, and deliver updates on the residual market. You’ll also gain fresh perspective on emerging trends in motor vehicle accidents and legislative developments across the western U.S.

Todd Johnson, Senior State Relations Executive, External & Government Affairs; National Council on Compensation Insurance

BREAK 1:30-1:45 P.M.

BREAK OUT SESSIONS 1:45-2:45 P.M.

► Deftly Dealing with Dodgy Patients: Navigating Non-organic Obstacles to Recovery in the Injured Worker

Some patients in the workers’ compensation system over-consume resources for reasons that do not always correlate with organic pathology. This does not mean these patients are bad people. But taking care of them can be difficult and frustrating. It requires skill. We will discuss strategies for navigating these non-organic obstacles to recovery in injured workers.

Dr. Brian Johns, MD, Occupational Health Medical Director; St. Luke’s Health System

► From Reactive to Predictive: The AI Evolution in Workers' Compensation

Workers' compensation has traditionally been a reactive process - addressing claims relied heavily on manual review and human judgment. However, with the rise of artificial intelligence, that paradigm is shifting. This presentation explores how AI has evolved and how it is transforming Workers' Compensation from a reactive system to a predictive, proactive, and data-driven model. We will examine real-world use cases where AI enhances claims triage, identifies high-risk cases early, predicts claim severity, and supports faster decision making. Attendees will gain insight on how AI empowers adjusters, reduces claim cycle times, improves outcomes for injured workers, and lowers costs for carriers and employers.

Kieran Wilcox, Head of Claims Solutions; CLARA Analytics

► PTSD in Workers' Comp: Accurate Diagnosis, Effective Treatment, and Meaningful Recovery

J. Audie Black, PhD, ABN and Melissa Kremer, PsyD will present an integrated discussion on the evaluation and treatment of PTSD in workers' compensation cases. Dr. Black will present on the evaluation of PTSD, clarify what constitutes PTSD per the DSM-5-TR, provide a framework for objective assessment including detection of malingering or symptom exaggeration, and discuss differences between standard physical-mental injury claims and Idaho's PTSI statute for first responders. Dr. Kremer will outline evidence-based treatments, addressing expected recovery timelines and key considerations when PTSD is complicated by co-occurring conditions such as chronic pain or concussion. The presentation will challenge myths about permanent impairment and illustrate how focused, time-limited therapy can result in meaningful recovery.

Melissa Kremer, Trauma Psychologist; Idaho Neuropsychology, PLLC

J. Audie Black, Founder & Chief Neuropsychologist; Idaho Neuropsychology, PLLC

BREAK 2:45-3:15 P.M.

CASE LAW REVIEW 3:15-4:15 P.M.

Andy and Mark have scoured the recent case law and will summarize recent developments in Idaho workers' compensation. They will entertain you with the most significant decisions, offering perspective from both sides of the aisle.

Claimant Attorney: Andrew Adams; Curtis Porter & Adams Law PLLC

Defense Attorney: Mark Peterson, Chief Legal Officer; Idaho SIF

MEET OUR PRESENTERS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Mark Pew

Provost & Founding Partner; WorkCompCollege.com

Mark Pew is a passionate educator and agitator who has been addressing painkiller over-prescribing since 2003. He currently is founding partner and Provost at WorkCompCollege.com. Known as the RxProfessor, Mark is focused on the intersection of chronic pain and appropriate treatment, particularly as it relates to the clinical and financial implications of opioids, benzodiazepines and other prescription painkillers, non-pharma treatment modalities and the evolution of medical cannabis. He is a strong champion to #PreventTheMess and #CleanUpTheMess, movements he created to drive attention to the importance of individualized appropriate treatment for injured workers. Mark is a vocal advocate of the BioPsychoSocialSpiritual treatment model that focuses on the whole person.

With more than 40 years of experience in property and casualty, healthcare and technology, Mark has been the mastermind behind solutions that transform the way the workers' compensation industry navigates utilization management and treatment, particularly in the area of opioids and other potentially high-risk medications.

Mark is a popular speaker at workers' compensation, insurance, legal and healthcare conferences around the country and frequently provides continuing education sessions to carriers, self-insured employers and third-party administrators. Since 2012, Mark has presented educational content 710 times to 70,931 people in 42 states (and counting). He is also an accomplished content-generator thru blogging, published articles, videos and podcasts. His blog was recognized in 2016, 2017 and 2018 as a WorkersCompensation.com "Best Blog."

Mark created "Qualified Medical Intervention" that won a 2012 Business Insurance Innovation Award, received WorkCompCentral's Magna Comp Laude Award in 2016, the IAIABC's Samuel Gompers Award in 2017, named "Top 100 Healthcare Leader" by IFAH in 2021 and received the Health 2.0 Outstanding Leadership award in 2022. Mark was inducted into Who's Who in America in 2024.

BREAK OUT SESSION SPEAKERS

Andrew Adams

Curtis Porter & Adams Law PLLC

Andy Adams was born and raised in Blackfoot, Idaho. After serving a mission in California, he went to the Phoenix School of Law in Arizona. He then joined the firm of Curtis & Porter Law after graduation where he gained experience in workers' compensation and personal injury. He has been specializing solely in workers' compensation since 2011. The firm was rebranded as Curtis Porter & Adams in about 2021. In his free time, he enjoys snowboarding, reading, running and spending time with his family.

J. Audie Black

Founder & Chief Neuropsychologist; Idaho Neuropsychology, PLLC

Dr. Joseph "Audie" Black is an Idaho native and board-certified Clinical Neuropsychologist. He is the founder of Idaho Neuropsychology, PLLC – a group private practice – where he provides comprehensive cognitive, behavioral, and emotional assessments to adults. This includes both clinical and forensic (IME) evaluations for injured workers, among other patient populations. Prior to launching his private practice, Dr. Black provided outpatient and inpatient (Level-1 Trauma and Neuro Rehab) evaluations to patients at two large-hospital systems, including St. Luke's Health System in Idaho and Allegheny Health Network in Pittsburgh, PA. Outside of direct clinical care, he is committed to professional service, including serving a prior term on the Executive Board of Directors for the American Board of Professional Neuropsychology (ABN) and he recently served as Co-Chair of the Continue Education Committee for the Idaho Psychological Association.

Michael T. Daines

West Idaho Orthopedics and Sports Medicine

Michael T. Daines MD is a fellowship trained shoulder specialist with over 16 years of experience in the field. Dr. Daines started his current job at West Idaho Orthopedics and Sports Medicine in 2013, relocating from southern Colorado. Dr. Daines received his MD from Columbia University in New York and then completed a 5 year residency in orthopedic surgery at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics. Dr. Daines was then awarded the prestigious Girdlestone Memorial Scholarship in Orthopedics funding a year-long shoulder fellowship at Oxford University which was completed in 2009. Since then Dr. Daines has been a leading orthopedic provider of shoulder medicine first in southern Colorado and now in the Treasure Valley where he has a thriving shoulder specialty practice with a strong interest in industrial medicine. Dr. Daines is a leader in the independent provider community and is a member of the Independent Doctors of Idaho network (IDID). He served as the surgery chair at WVMC for 8 years and currently serves as president of West Idaho Orthopedics and Sports medicine, one of Idaho's premier independent orthopedic groups.

Dr. Marcos Iglesias

Chief Medical Director; AF Group

Dr. Iglesias leads the medical strategy at AF Group, where he is developing an innovative, comprehensive, and evidence-based framework to address the medical and psychosocial challenges faced by injured workers. With more than 35 years of experience in disability care, workers' compensation, and insurance leadership, he is also a sought-after speaker at national and regional conferences.

A strong advocate for a holistic, person-centered approach, Dr. Iglesias is dedicated to helping individuals achieve meaningful functional and occupational recovery following injury or illness—not merely managing symptoms. His professional interests include the early identification of biopsychosocial risk factors and the use of timely, targeted interventions to prevent delayed recovery and long-term disability.

Dr. Iglesias earned his medical degree from the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto and a Master of Medical Management (MMM) from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California. He is board-certified in Family Medicine and Utilization Review and is a Fellow of both the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine and the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. Brian Johns

Occupational Health Medical Director; St. Luke's Health System

Brian Johns, MD, MPH is the medical director of St. Luke's Occupational Health. He is board certified in occupational and environmental medicine by the American Board of Preventive Medicine and is a fellow in the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine. He is an experienced certified independent medical examiner and is also available to see patients for work injuries, pre-placement, DOT, respirator, Hazmat, and other examinations; disability assessments; impairment ratings; and independent medical evaluations.

The Shoulder Clinic of Idaho

Dr. Johnson earned his medical degree from Cornell Medical College in New York City. At graduation he was awarded the T. Campbell Thompson Award for excellence in orthopedic surgery by the faculty of the Hospital for Special Surgery, the oldest orthopedic hospital in the United States. He then completed his residency at UCLA Medical Center in Los Angeles, California where he served as a chief resident. As a resident he was elected to the AOA-OREF Resident Leadership Forum and as a UCLA research fellow he received various awards for his work involving the biochemistry of bone regeneration. He has authored multiple peer reviewed research articles and has been invited to present his work at national and international meetings.

Following residency, he completed a fellowship at the world-renowned Steadman Clinic in Vail, Colorado where he was trained in complex shoulder surgery. While in Vail he served as a team physician for the U.S. Ski and Snowboard teams. He has also been a team physician for Rocky Mountain High School, the Idaho Stampede, Idaho Steelheads and Stampede Rodeo. He feels privileged to join the amazing team at The Shoulder Clinic of Idaho and is dedicated to providing the same level of care that patients of the clinic have come to expect. He specializes in shoulder surgery including arthroscopy, rotator cuff repairs, instability, fractures, total and reverse total shoulder replacements. Dr. Johnson understands how limiting joint pain can be. He is dedicated to helping his patients achieve their highest activity level possible.

Todd Johnson

Senior State Relations Executive, External & Government Affairs; National Council on Compensation Insurance

As a senior state relations executive, Todd Johnson is responsible for NCCI's regulatory and legislative affairs, including rate filings, legislative pricings, rules and form filings, and residual market issues. He supports the Pacific Northwest states of Montana, Wyoming, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Alaska, and the great state of Idaho.

Prior to joining NCCI in 2017, Mr. Johnson served as the Director of Workers Compensation for a national TPA specializing in public entities. He was also the Managing Director for all residual market servicing carrier operations with a national WC carrier. Additionally, he led the claim operation for a workers compensation reinsurance company providing oversight of all licensed carriers, public entities, and self-insured companies.

Kieran Wilcox

Head of Claims Solutions; CLARA Analytics

Kieran Wilcox serves as Head of Claims Solutions at CLARA Analytics, where he brings deep, hands-on experience in claims management across carriers, self-insured organizations and injury law firms. With a background as both an adjuster, supervisor and risk manager, Kieran offers a unique, real-world perspective on the complexities of auto, injury, general liability, and workers' compensation claims. As CLARA's subject matter expert, he helps bridge the gap between advanced AI solutions and the practical needs of claims professionals, driving innovation and better outcomes across the industry.

Melissa KremerTrauma Psychologist; Idaho Neuropsychology, PLLC*

Dr. Melissa Kremer earned her Doctorate in Clinical Psychology from the Adler University, formerly the Adler School of Professional Psychology, in 2012, with a concentration in trauma psychology. She completed her pre-doctoral internship at the Boise Veterans Affairs Medical Center. With her research, she helped develop the first civilian military psychology academic training program at Adler University. Dr. Kremer's research, clinical interests and areas of expertise include trauma psychology, military psychology, end of life concerns, chronic pain management and evidence-based psychotherapies for PTSD. She enjoys teaching and supervising trainees ranging across disciplines, and volunteers with several organizations in the Treasure Valley. Outside of trauma work, you will find her enjoying hiking, mountain biking, photography, skiing and camping in this beautiful state.

Mark PetersonChief Legal Officer; Idaho SIF*

Mark Peterson recently took a position as Chief Legal Officer for SIF, Idaho Workers' Compensation. In this role, he is on SIF's Executive Team and provides advice to all departments within the insurance company.

Graduating from law school in 2001, the first several years of Mr. Peterson's career included the practice in many areas of the law, including health care, commercial litigation, workers' compensation, professional licensing, and administrative law. Although Mark's practice always included workers' compensation, it evolved over the years to be his primary area of practice. Mark has defended numerous employers and sureties at all stages of workers' compensation matters, including at hearings and in compliance matters before the Idaho Industrial Commission and before the Supreme Court of Idaho. He has also handled medical payment disputes on behalf of both sureties and providers. Mark has achieved an AV Preeminent Rating from Martindale Hubbell, has been recognized by the Best Lawyers in America for Insurance Law, Super Lawyers for Workers' Compensation Law, and was honored in the Idaho Business Review's Leaders in Law - Partners category in 2018. Mark currently serves on the Advisory Committee to the Idaho Industrial Commission.

Mark is a native and proud Idahoan, who grew up in Burley. He and his wife, Jennifer, have raised their family in Boise since 2002. They enjoy spending time with their three adult children and two perfectly amazing grandsons.

Joseph PirtleBar Counsel; Idaho State Bar*

Joe Pirtle joined Bar Counsel's office in April 2022. Before then, Joe was a shareholder and civil litigation attorney with Elam & Burke in Boise. Joe received his B.S. in Business Finance from the University of Idaho in 2001 and his J.D. from the University of Idaho College of Law in 2004.

Joe was a member of the inaugural class of the Idaho Academy of Leadership for Lawyers, and later served for three years on its steering committee. He is a past chairperson of the ISB Litigation Section as well as a mentor for the Idaho Trial Skills Academy. Joe served many years as a member of the Idaho Lawyer Assistance Program and was pro bono counsel to the Idaho Suicide Prevention Hotline for many years.

Claire SharpIndustrial Commission; Commission Chair*

Claire earned her Juris Doctor from Brigham Young University in 2008 and has since demonstrated a commitment to public service and the legal profession. Sharp has a deep understanding of the Commission's operations, having served as the law clerk for Commissioner James Kile from 2008 to 2009, Commissioner Thomas Baskin from 2009 to 2016, and Commissioner Thomas Limbaugh from 2016 to 2020.

Sharp broadened her legal expertise at a local healthcare company from 2020 to 2022, where she handled a diverse range of workers' compensation, employment, and home health and hospice issues. Sharp returned to state government in 2022, serving as a Deputy Attorney General for the Public Utilities Commission. Sharp would thereafter accept a reassignment to the Industrial Commission, where she handled compliance and contractual issues.

In 2024, Governor Brad Little appointed Sharp to her present role. Notably, Sharp is the first woman appointed as Commissioner since Rachel Gilbert was appointed by Governor Phil Batt in 1995.

Sharp resides in Meridian and takes great pride in her children, Thomas and Audrey. Sharp volunteers at their school, supports a non-profit for medically fragile children, and indulges in fresh croissants and travel.
